PARENT LECTURE WITH BARBARA COLOROSO

Mary, Jenny, Barbara & Heather

Jeff, Kelly, Rory, Jonathan, Geoffrey, Carla

Cesira, Stephanie & Maria

Lucy, Vicky, Joann & Sandra

Cardinal Carter Academy for the Arts invited Snap to join them for a free parent lecture with Barbara Coloroso, featuring a book-signing and a CPIC meet and greet. Coles Bookstore was on hand to sell copies of Barbara's book for those interested in a deeper scope of the issues addressed in her writing. The internationally acclaimed speaker and author addressed the topic: "Just because it's not wrong doesn't make it right, from toddlers to teens, teaching kids to think and act ethically". Hundreds of people showed up for this event, filling up the spectacular auditorium to learn about important and relevant issues that kids of all ages face.

SENECA ILLUSTRATION DIPLOMA GRAD SHOW

The Special Projects Gallery at York University played host to the first EVER Seneca Illustration Diploma Grad Show. This show featured work from the first graduating class of Seneca's Independent Illustration diploma, the first course of its kind in Canada. The works include comic art, graphic novels, children's books, advertising, concept art and caricature. Independent Illustration is a unique four-semester program that combines the art of illustration with business skills that are essential to the industry. Students with a strong interest in visual arts, visual storytelling and a desire to work in the freelance illustration field are likely to find their niche in this progressive program. SCOUTS CANADA LAUNCHES NEW UNIFORM

Scouts Canada debuted their new uniform, designed by the Joe Fresh® brand. Current Scout members of all ages strutted their stuff and modelled the revitalized uniform at a celebratory gathering. A vibrant collection of contemporary active wear for boys, girls and Scout youth was showcased during this unique fashion show. After more than 20 years, approximately 200 Scout members were among the first to catch a glimpse of the new uniform. For further information visit www.scouts.ca or call 1-888-SCOUTS-NOW (1-888-726-8876).

J-SERVE TORONTO

Westley, Jonah & Avi

Youth Group Staff, Advisers & Volunteers

For the second year in a row, Toronto-area teens had the opportunity to participate in J-Serve, the Global Day of Jewish Youth Service at Adath Israel Congregation. Upwards of 500 Toronto-area teens, along with 10,000 Jewish teens from across North America, Europe, and Israel participated in this international initiative which was funded by UJA Federation of Greater Toronto and the PANIM Institute of BBYO. Teens who registered at Jserve.ca had their choice of several service opportunities and different projects that allowed them to explore the Jewish values of gemilut chasidim, acts of loving kindness, tzedakah, just and charitable giving, and tikkum olam, the responsibility to repair the world.
